The main thesis of Ayesha Jalal is that Jinnah claimed to be the sole spokesman of all Indian Muslims not only in the provinces where they were in majority but also where they were in minority.

The sole spokesman - a critique - Daily Times

Jinnah claimed to be the sole spokesman of all the Indian Muslims, not only in provinces where they were in a majority but also in the provinces where they were in a minority. Yet given the political geography of the subcontinent, it was clear that there would always be as many Muslims outside a specifically Muslim state as inside it.
