The Sovereignty Of God Arthur

The exceptionally fine teaching of Scriptural truth by Arthur W. Pink is vitally needed today. If only the churches of Christendom would follow and preach these truths our nation would be in better health (spiritually). Although the text is around 90 years old it is still easily readable. "The Sovereignty of God" is top of my list (after the KJV) of books to recommend to Christians of all ages.

The Sovereignty of God may be defined as the exercise of His supremacy. Being infinitely elevated above the highest creature, He is the Most High, Lord of Heaven and earth. Subject to none, influenced by none, He is absolutely independent. God does as He pleases, only as He pleases, always as He pleases.

The sovereignty of God is looked at through the doctrinal lens of predestination. Arthur W. Pink goes so far as to say that Jesus Christ did not, in fact, die for all of humankind but that He died for some- which I think is Biblical heresy.

The Sovereignty of God by Arthur W. Pink - Goodreads

Sovereignty of God was too extreme and one-sided. It has been pointed out that a fundamental requirement in expounding the Word of God is the need of preserving the balance of Truth. With this we are in hearty accord. Two things are beyond dispute: God is Sovereign, and man is a responsible creature.
