“Scope” of the EMS includes the organization’s functions, physical boundaries, and its activities, products and services to which ISO 14001 requirements will apply. It is common practice to consider the items described in the bullet points when establishing scope statements.

Frequently Asked Questions on ISO 14001:2015

ISO 14001 is the most popular of the 14000 family, and sets out the requirements for an effective environmental management system (EMS). In this way, it is in parallel to the ISO 9001 standard for defining the requirements of a quality management system (QMS); the difference is ISO 14001 focuses on principles of environmental management and sustainable development, instead of quality management.
