Westing Game Literary Guide

Written and published in the late 1970s, The Westing Game satirizes the complex and rapidly changing social, political, and economic standards of the time. The ensemble cast of the novel, which has been described by critics as “deliberately, flagrantly, almost allegorically” multicultural, allows Raskin to highlight the racist and classist thoughts of characters who think of themselves as openminded and “liberal” while demonstrating the difficulties that immigrants, minorities, and ...
