A civil society organisation is an organisational structure whose members serve the general interest through a democratic process, and which plays the role of mediator between public authorities and citizens. Article 15 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union recognises civil society's role in the EU's good governance.

Glossary of summaries - EUR-Lex

Civil Society Civil society and the broader set of non-state actors (NSAs) and Local Authorities (LA) are privileged partners of the EU. Support from the EU for these actors encourages them to work towards better governance and more participatory development, increasingly involving citizens through their specific, often complementary, approaches.
