Prokofiev 's First Piano Sonata was premiered early in 1910, with the composer himself at the keyboard. Although it does not belong to the composer's juvenilia, it is also not truly representative of his mature style, and is best appreciated as a showcase for Prokofiev's own pianistic skills. The work was originally cast in three movements, but Prokofiev discarded the second movement and the Finale, choosing to publish only the revised first movement.
