Although Hillard & Botting's introductory Latin textbooks are available in modern reprints, it is extremely useful to have both English into Latin and Latin into English exercises accessible in this single volume. The grammar primer as used and referred to by H&B is also appended. Good work - well done, and thank you!

Hillard and Botting's classroom concentrated on translation from Latin to English and from English to Latin, with somewhat greater emphasis given to the latter. Gourlay's compendium reflects this balance. Sixty-one sections each contain about half a dozen exercises, sometimes preceded by a brief explanation of some point of grammar.
