Parents need to know Disney Infinity is an action adventure game that uses real toy figurines to introduce characters into the game. Inspired by Activision's toy-based Skylanders games, the $74.99 base game -- which includes a stand on which players set figurines to transport characters into the game, plus three figurines -- can be augmented with additional real-world toys that start at $12.99 per figurine.

Disney Infinity Game Review - Common Sense Media

Each default starter pack for one of the games has included at least one play set; the starter pack for Disney Infinity contained one play set piece that granted access to three play sets, while the starter packs for Disney Infinity: 2.0 Edition and Disney Infinity: 3.0 Edition had access to one play set, while the Disney Infinity: 2.0 Edition Toy Box Starter Pack had none, due to the fact that neither of the characters included with it can enter any play sets.
