MCQ Questions for Class 7 Social Science with Answers PDF ...

The social sciences are not a self-contained system, one of whose boundaries lies in some fringe area of the historical sciences. Rather the study of man is a continuum, and social scientific history is a bridge between the social sciences and the humanities. What we are proposing, to both audiences, is a bigger and better bridge.

History as Social Science - Items

What emerges from the critical rationalism of the 18th century is not, in the first instance, a conception of need for a plurality of social sciences, but rather for a single science of humanity that would take its place in the hierarchy of the sciences that included the fields of astronomy, physics, chemistry, and biology. In the 1840s, Comte called for a new science, one with humanity, not humans as animals, as its subject (humans as animals already being a subject of biology).
