The Very Bad Book by Andy Griffiths

Where their previously released Inside the Machine and Digital Nation albums were dominated by squalling atmospheres and razor-wire b-lines, the Book of the Bad concept aimed to raise the game from post-apocalyptic dancefloor bangers to something a little more obtuse. Followers of the Company should fear not however, as they are careful to scatter plenty of the messed-up synthetics and angry percussives with which they built their empire in amongst the more abstract material.
