Kaleb helped Zoey into the car before going around to the driver’s side. He resituated himself as he got in, hoping he could just get through this evening without sneaking Zoey off to the bathroom and taking her nine ways to Sunday. A half hour later they were pulling up at the restaurant, the valet rushing over to open Zoey’s door while another came around to Kaleb’s. Without a second ...

Kaleb took a few steps closer, pulling her against him. When the warmth of his chest pressed into her back, her breath hitched in her throat. With his arms wrapped around her, Zoey felt a strange sense of comfort wash over her. As foreign as it felt to be in his arms, it was also incredibly familiar although Kaleb had never touched her like this. The closest they’d come had been when she had ...
