"Heretic" is an apt word, as Chantry offers a valuable perspective on graphic design history that pokes holes in commonly accepted tropes. Was Paul Rand really great or was he a great promoter? (Overrated and Yes.) He also posits that people who lived longer became more celebrated than those that died younger. Prepare to have your current worldviews on design questioned and revisited, but you ...

In 2015, Feral House published Art Chantry Speaks, a collection of his essays on design history that first appeared on Facebook. The shift to the digital world, he points out, “took the language of graphic design away from the elite academia—the world that defined what it was and what it was not—and put it into the hands of the every man.”

Art Chantry - Wikipedia

The gritty work of Art Chantry speaks for itself. But that doesn't mean this opinionated contrarian doesn't have anything to say — quite the opposite! This master of low-tech design is known for his gig posters, album covers, magazine design, and logos. His work is most often associated with the '80s underground grunge movement that was born in his Seattle hometown. In fact, he has ...
