All That Matters Susan X

Susan X. Meagher's All that Matters is about a woman trying to get pregnant, the pregnancy itself and the birth and when you're done reading all 500 plus pages it feels like you've delivered a baby yourself. Of course there is also a healthy amount of drama involved and a lot of love and self-realization, but the main theme is the pregnancy.

All That Matters by Susan X. Meagher - Goodreads

Susan X Meagher has a way of bringing real people with all their fears and neuroses to life. And every take is different. I am yet to read even one of her books in which I feel like a character is repeated. I would love to read a sequel to see whether Blair is able to control her tendencies to micromanage.
