Why Tango: Essays on learning, dancing and living tango ...

These essays examine how tango is taught, danced, perceived, and experienced today. The author's experiences resonated with my own, and helped me understand why not everyone perceives tango the same way. (The content rates five stars, but as an editor, I knocked off one star because I found myself fixing a lot of writing errors in my head.)

Why we suffer when learning tango | Story | Tangofolly

The reason for this is that Tango was created by the kinds of people who generally leave no mark on history except by dying in wars - the poor, the underprivileged. Often we have to pick our way through comments made by people who were not part of their culture, who knew little or nothing about Tango.

What makes tango unique? - SoTango

Tango invites you into an embrace whose arms you never want to leave. It is a dance of intertwined bodies engaged in a dialogue of limbs, which caress the floor and each other, creating a moving seduction. Tango is language evolved. Tango, the music and the dance, has a complex history, the details of which vary depending on who you read or listen to.

Argentine tango as intimacy practice (English) Le tango argentin comme une pratique de l'intimité (Français) The original version appeared in Russian in a women's online magazine. There is also a hungarian translation available. If you are new to my essays, the full list of titles can be somewhat overwhelming.

Essays - Veronica Toumanova

Tango classes are a lot of fun and newcomers tend to pick up the dance quickly. To learn at home, several videos are available for purchase online. When learning by video, it is recommended to try to take at least a few classes when feeling confident enough, as nothing can take the place of live, hands-on instruction.

Tango Dance: Definition, Styles, and Techniques

Tango History Essay. Tango appeared in the late 19th century: "Tango belongs to a music genre, which is associated with dance and music. Argentina is considered to be the origin of tango. One can come across various types of tango. It is not that all tango is the same" (DifferenceBetween, 2011). The roots of tango have very close connection to the immigrants from poor neighborhoods in Buenos Aires.
