The Bartimaeus Trilogy is a "young adult" fantasy series by British author Jonathan Stroud. Book one, The Amulet of Samarkand, was published in September 2003, and book two, The Golem's Eye, was published in September of this year. I have no information on when book three will be published. In this review I plan to focus mainly on the setting, which I think has potential for use in a role ...

2 The Bartimaeus trilogy is set in modern times—was it very different to write in a historical setting? Well, it was important to me that the new book was rather different, because I didn't want to just copy what had gone before. The original trilogy is based in London, which I know well, and that knowledge had helped ground the fantasy nicely.
