And I have a trustworthy best friend who is always ...

Okay so I dont have the right to complain since I have ...

If you have a partner and/or family but don't have any friends, it can be okay but you may be rather dependent on your partner and/or family, and if something goes wrong btwn you and them; you wouldn't have any one to support you. If you don't have ANYONE to do things with and count on for support, then that is a pretty rare situation and I would be surprised if you didn't feel a little lonely.
