Fighting For A Living Wage

This is Living Wage Week and the Living Wage Foundation has announced an increase in the real living wage rate to £9.50 (£10.85 in London). The good news is that approximately 250,000 low-paid workers can expect a much-needed pay rise from today. But we mustn't forget that the real living wage is voluntary, so the bad news is that many others - many of them putting their own health on the line fighting COVID-19 - will be less fortunate and will continue to live on poverty pay.

In other communities implementation is weak or nonexistent, and thousands of workers do not benefit from laws designed to ensure that they are paid a living wage. Luce provides in Fighting for a Living Wage the first serious examination of the reasons for implementation failure, as well as an analysis of the factors that lead to success. Luce argues that citizens can play a significant role in implementing and monitoring living wage policies, even where governments oppose the movement or are ...
