Fury Trilogy Book Series: Amazon.com
The Watcher disguised Envy's fabricated worries that the nearest sin would be Envy combined with her rival's possessive attitude was enough to make Fury assume the bird creature was Envy, which the insane bird creature didn't bother to deny, even unto death and imprisonment within the Talisman at Fury's hands. Envy as the Watcher traveled with Fury as they hunted the Sins, many of which seemed to see through Envy's disguise while she herself dropped a few comments on the subject of Envy herself.

Euripides says Furies were three: Alecto (anthropomorphism of rage and mania), Tisiphone (anthropomorphism of revenge to killings) and Megaera (anthropomorphism of hatred and envy). Alecto is the Fury that delivers the punishment of moral crimes (such as anger), especially if directed against other people.
