Why We Broke Up

Why We Got Together by Reynje Dear 'Why We Broke Up', It wasn't that long ago that I thought I would be writing you a break-up letter. A terse, thanks-but-no-thanks, it's-not-me-it's-you-now-kindly-get-lost note. I can be acerbic when I'm annoyed and there it is, the admission, the honest truth that I thought you would annoy me.

We broke up because of all the times you let go of my hand. We broke up because of all the times I wanted you to stay but you left anyway. We broke up because of the songs we played in the car through the busy streetlights we passed that came and went like the people in my life and now you. It was either your song or my song but never our song.
