So to remind myself, I am doing what my college encouraged us to do from day 1: write a short letter to myself. So my letter to myself today is this: Dear Ivy, I hope you always remember how wildly beautiful you are. And on those days that you forget, I hope you always remember you have the strength to come back, forgive yourself and try again. Love me. Try it for yourself. Be patient with yourself. It's okay if it takes time.

A Motivational Letter to Myself

Memo to Myself We have had the opportunity to measure our thinking and learning styles over the time in this course. We have been provided with analytical assessments that have helped us better understand why we think and operate as we do. In Learning Skill Inventory 1, I learned that I think predominantly with the right side of my brain. This makes sense because I have spent most of my adult ...

Conservatives often object to this sort of use of "myself" when "me" or "I" would do. It's usually appropriate to use "myself" when you have used "I" earlier in the same sentence: "I am not particularly fond of goat cheese myself." "I kept half the loot for myself." "Myself" is also fine in expressions like "young people like myself" or "a picture of my boyfriend and myself."
