Thomas Paine And
The Promise

Beginning with Paine's life and ideas and following their vigorous influence through to our own day, Thomas Paine and the Promise of America reveals how, while the powers that be repeatedly sought to suppress, defame, and most recently co-opt Paine's memory, generations of radical and liberal Americans turned to Paine for inspiration as they endeavored to expand American freedom, equality, and democracy.

Thomas Paine and the Promise of America by Harvey J. Kaye

But the anti-Paine elite would fail. "Within a generation Americans would come forth who would refuse not only to permit his name to go publicly unremembered, but also, and more important, to allow his vision of America's purpose and promise to go unredeemed.... They would harness Paine's words and articulate them anew" (p. 117).

Thomas Paine and the Promise of America. Feb. 1, 2006 5:00 pm. By Thom Hartmann A... Book by Harvey J. Kaye. Review by Thom Hartmann, originally published at buzzflash.com on February 2, 2006. It would not be an exaggeration to say that without Thomas Paine there may not have been an American Revolution.

At the very least, it may well have been of a substantially different nature and character, and our government may be far more plutocratic than it was designed to be.

'Thomas Paine and the Promise of America': Founding Father ...

The author makes a good case for the continuing legacy of Thomas Paine, and traces the occasional resurgences of this legacy in the politics of the last 241 years (give or take). I am sympathetic with his interpretations of which of our politicians have seen the world as Paine did, and which merely appropriated his language.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Thomas Paine And The Promise ...

Traces the revolutionary spirit that runs through American history, and whose founding father and greatest advocate was Thomas Paine, showing how Paine turned Americans into radicals--and how we have remained radicals at heart ever since. Paine was one of the most remarkable political writers of the modern world, and the greatest radical of a radical age.
