What We Cannot Know : Explorations at the Edge of ...

The central premise of the book is that author Marcus du Sautoy is seeking to understand the limits of what we know, to stand at the boundary of human knowledge and gaze into the abyss of what we don't know. Is it infinite, or are we close to the other side, will it be possible to understand everything? While he does indeed ponder these questions, the real meat of the book, and what makes it awe inspiring, compelling, thrilling, is his exploration of what lies on this side of the boundary, a ...
