Lisa O'Donnell (Author of The Death of Bees)

The blurb for The Death Of Bees by Lisa O'Donnell will undoubtedly polarise potential readers. There will be some who find the idea of two young Glaswegian council estate girls burying their parents in their back garden a little contrived and soap opera-y and there will be others who infer the promise of a drama rich with mystery, and an insight into the minds of two young girls fighting for survival in an adult world.

Review: The Death Of Bees by Lisa O'Donnell - Neon Books

"Birds keep chirping and music keeps playing. Life continues as another life ebbs away. We have seen death before, Marnie and I, a mountain of ice melting over time, drops of water freezing at your core reminding you every day of that which has vanished, but the despair we know today is a sadness sailing sorrow through every bone and knuckle.
