Sovereignty After Empire Comparing The

'This is an excellent study of the impact of empire on the post-colonial state and challenges the idea of a sharp break between empire and sovereignty. With its cutting-edge comparison of the Middle East and Central Asia, this is an impressive comparative historical and political analysis which will be a valuable and lasting contribution to the academic literature.' --Professor Roland Dannreuther, Head of Politics and International Relations, University of Westminster

Sovereignty After Empire: Comparing the Middle East and ...

Empire matters for post-imperial sovereignty and variations in imperial impact make for variations in post-colonial states. Indeed, the initial differential impacts of imperial experiences have put Middle East states on divergent pathways that have endured for decades after independence.

Sovereignty after Empire: Comparing the Middle East and ...

DOI:10.3366/edinburgh/9780748643042.003.0007. This chapter explores the different, often contradictory, meanings of empire and sovereignty in the history of the modern Middle East and considers how they have interacted, positively and negatively, with the development of states and institutions. It argues that the experience of Western imperialism and state-building interacted, often negatively, with pre-existing notions of sovereignty, leadership and modes of territorial, political and ...
