One of the more negative traits and characteristics of the Aquarius zodiac sign would definitely be their tendency to over-think the absolute hell out of things..

Sometimes they find themselves over analyzing things to the point where they feel incredibly stressed and anxious only to realize later that it wasn't even that big of a deal in the first place.

While Secrets of Nature does not definitively answer the question it poses about the relationships of astrology and alchemy, it does make clear their complexity. One has only to consider the works of the physicians Cardano, Forman, and Fabre to appreciate the many interests embraced by early modern astrologers and alchemists.
