Hans Falladas "Wolf among Wolves" takes place in the Weimar Republic during the second half of 1923 and the premier half of 1924. At this time, there is a galloping inflation in Germany, partly due to the war debt imposed on the country after the First World War. In the beginning of the novel, in July 1923, the dollar stands at 414 000 marks.

Wolf Among Wolves by Hans Fallada - Goodreads

Wolf Among Wolves is a sprawling saga of the collapse of a culture--its economy and government--and the common man's struggle to survive it all. Set in Weimar Germany soon after Germany's catastrophic loss of World War I, the story follows a young gambler who loses all in Berlin, then flees the chaotic city, where worthless money and shortages are causing pandemonium.
