Slavery And Social Death Orlando

Slavery and Social Death: A Comparative Study (1982) is an academic book by Harvard University sociologist Orlando Patterson. The author's area of focus is the internal and external dynamics of slavery.

Slavery and Social Death Summary | SuperSummary

Orlando Patterson's Slavery and Social Death is a masterpiece of scholarship and the landmark text on the subject. Though I do tend to be critical of academic speech particularly regarding its inaccessibility and how it makes completion of scholarly materials a chore, the richness of this work given what Patterson uncovers in this study makes the sometimes grinding nature of the reading experience well worth it.

Patterson discusses the internal dynamics of slavery in 66 societies over time. These include Greece and Rome, medieval Europe, China, Korea, the Islamic kingdoms, Africa, the Caribbean islands, and the American South. Slavery, he argues, is a single process of recruitment, incorporation on the margin of society, and eventual manumission or death.
