In Neither Sun nor Death, Sloterdijk answers questions posed by German writer Hans-Jürgen Heinrichs, commenting on such issues as technological mutation, development media, communication technologies, and his own intellectual itinerary. Iconoclastic and provocative, alternatively sparkling and bombastic, a child of '68 and a libertarian, Sloterdijk is the most exciting and controversial German philosopher to appear on the world scene since Nietzsche and Heidegger.

With a bit of detective work I managed to work out the “chain of custody” behind the words. So “Neither fire nor wind, birth nor death can erase our good deeds” is from Buddha’s Little Instruction Book. This in turn is based on “Neither fire, nor moisture, nor wind can destroy the blessing of
