Murder is the ultimate crime, but to remove an innocent man's dignity and self-respect, ruin his health, terrorise him day in and day out and dangle the carrot of "the system" finally realising their mistake only to remove it... and then dangle it once more, cannot be far behind, if at all; murder is final, there is no finality in miscarriages of justice - those acquitted remain under the threat of new proceedings being instigated against them.
