Following ancient Greek philosophy, natural law theory may include the claim that human nature has a teleological structure. That is, the human being has a natural function which is realized through the pursuit and actualization of certain natural goods. In this case, natural law also involves a commitment to a theory of goods.

Some Reflections on the Problem of Natural Law: Comments ...

Natural Law. Quick revise. Natural Law is an absolutist theory most commonly associated with St Thomas Aquinas (1224 -1274). It relies on Aquinas' basic understanding that humans innately try to do good and to avoid evil in order to find fulfillment and happiness in life (Synderesis Rule). Primary Precepts.

Natural Law | Revision World

Formally defined, the Natural Law is humans' participation in the Eternal Law, through reason and will. Humans actively participate in the eternal law of God (the governance of the world) by using reason in conformity with the Natural Law to discern what is good and evil. In applying this universal notion of Natural Law to the human person, one first must decide what it is that God has ordained human nature to be inclined toward.
