I love this book! It's great for reading aloud to children while sounding like Dracula and meowing like a cat when called for. I used to volunteer at our school library, and this book was requested a lot. It's not scary, it's just good fun. If you love reading to children, I highly recommend this book.

What We Do in the Shadows began life as a brilliant, darkly comedic mockumentary by Taika Waititi and Jemaine Clement, and it lives on as an equally fantastic television series. Most of the show's humor stems from the ways in which vampires are "just like us," whether that's bickering about chores or stressing about party planning.
