Book review: The Abundant Community, Awakening the Power of Families and Neighborhoods, by John McKnight and Peter Block. If loving our neighbor is as related to loving our neighborhood as many in the church today believe it to be, then the 2010 book 'The Abundant Community' is a very important study. While you won't find this book in the Christian section, you may find it very helpful in guiding your thinking and practice concerning the Great Commandment.

The Abundant Community | Flawless Consulting

The Abundant Community is a book that reminds us that our greatest strength as a people comes from the gifts of caring, aware communities and neighborhoods.

The Book - Abundant Community

It is this care that is the basic power of a community of citizens. Care cannot be provided, managed, or purchased from systems. Health, safety, environment, economy, food, children, and care are the seven responsibilities of an abundant community and its citizens. They are the necessities that only we can fulfill.
