Mad Love Suzanne Selfors

"Selfors is adept at making Alice a sympathetic and believable character. She keeps the pace going with the near-miss moments between Alice and her love interest, Tony. The story takes place in Seattle in the midst of a stifling, humid summer, which creates an atmosphere appropriate for Alice's situation.

I liked that - that Suzanne Selfors didn't make a big deal about it, making it seem totally normal. Most of the time with cross cultural romance, that's one of the central themes of the book, which to me, makes it still seem different. But with having one and not drawing attention to it, I thought Ms. Selfors showed it in a positive and normal way.
