"Abortion, Motherhood, and Mental Health: Medicalizing ...

Abortion and Mental Health. Abortion is the medical or surgical termination of a pregnancy, one of the oldest, most common and most controversial medical procedures. There are numerous reasons for a woman to seek an abortion, and about one in four women in the United States will have an abortion before age 45, although abortion rates across the country have been declining, according to the Guttmacher Institute.

Abortion and Mental Health

When someone hears about a situation in which a pregnancy is terminated, what often comes to mind is elective abortion, which entails the purposeful killing of a preborn baby for the sake of terminating an unwanted pregnancy. In no way and under no circumstance does Focus on the Family view elective abortion as a morally acceptable choice.
