Finals Study Guide

In the book How to Study in College, author Walter Pauk advises to create a “Home-Stretch Schedule” when you’re nearing finals. This is essentially an uber-detailed version of your normal schedule; you should include things like little tasks, meals, and other small events.

How to Create a Study Schedule for Your Final Exams

Start studying for finals a few weeks before the first exam, and figure out how much time to set aside each day for each subject. Be realistic about how long it will take to, say, memorize the dates for all the Civil War battles. You need to fit in brain breaks, too! 3. Study in this order: a) definitely b) probably c) might be on the final
