Calico Palace Gwen Bristow

Excellent historical novel about the California Gold Rush, first published in 1970. I first discovered Gwen Bristow's historical novels in 1970, when Calico Palace was initially released. It was the last novel that Gwen Bristow published. It covers the time period of 1848-1851 in San Francisco, California.

As a lover of history and historical novels, I found CALICO PALACE to be another of Gwen Bristow's masterpieces! The story of the development of California from a few shacks and tents to a thriving city was fascinating. What people had to do to even get to California in the 1800s was described as a living nightmare, but people were willing to ...

The book Calico Palace is a romance/historical novel/adventure story that brings the California Gold Rush to vivid life with wonderful characters, a robust sense of humor, some harrowing tragedy (the Gold Rush was not a place for wimps), and a strong message of the importance of building your own family, being emotionally hardy, and seizing the life you want in a forthright way. It's a powerfully feminist book and while some of the romance comes out of nowhere, it contains one of the best ...

Gwen Bristow - Wikipedia

Calico Palace I can't recommend Gwen Bristow's books highly enough. It is hard to keep in mind that the characters are fictitious and not part of my family; and she presents history with a slant that I have never seen. Pure enjoyment! More Books by Gwen Bristow See All. Deep Summer. 2014 Celia Garth. 2014 Plantation Trilogy.
