Playing the piano has always been an essential part of Lady Gaga’s creative process. She started her career by singing in dive bars, and dragged her keyboard from one gig to the next, pretending she’s her own manager. Lady Gaga didn’t ditch her favorite instrument after finding global fame, and her songwriting process usually starts at the piano. She believes that “all good music can be played at a piano and still sound like a hit” and often tested this theory during her live ...
