The Philosophy Of Chiropractic

Chiropractic focuses on the integrity of the spine and its surrounding tissues as a means to enhance normal human function and health. There are two basic philosophies of chiropractic: The body naturally seeks the proper balance among all its systems, which are meant to work together. Proper structure is necessary for proper function. If a structure is impaired by injury or stress, its function can be adversely affected.

What Is the Philosophy of Chiropractic? | Taking Charge of ...

Chiropractic philosophy includes the following perspectives: Holism assumes that health is affected by everything in an individual's environment; some sources also include a spiritual or existential dimension. In contrast, reductionism in chiropractic reduces causes and cures of health problems to a single factor, vertebral subluxation.

Chiropractic - Wikipedia

Chiropractic philosophy ceased being a means to an end and instead, became a method of justification and a license to avoid critical examination of fundamental perspectives. Over the course of the decades that followed, the power players of their respective day used what they had to work with to advance the profession.

The main purpose of the chiropractor is to reduce interference to your inborn, innate healing ability. The keystone of Chiropractic philosophy thus, is prevention. Barring the bizarre, Chiropractic philosophy tells us that a healthy, wholistically maintained body and lifestyle, free of subluxations will enjoy a long and prosperous life. We are also of the belief that much of the medications and surgeries used in "modern" health care are unnecessary and often harmful.

THE ART, SCIENCE, PHILOSOPHY OF CHIROPRACTIC - Boston ...

by Frank Zolli, D.C. Chiropractic is that branch of the healing arts which is composed of a distinct philosophy, art, and science. Art and science may lead the practitioner to answer how and where to treat a patient, but it is the principles of chiropractic philosophy that give purpose to the adjustment.

CHAPTER 1: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE PRINCIPLES OF CHIROPRACTIC

Chiropractic is a science, art and philosophy. The philosophy of chiropractic is built upon the constructs of vitalism, holism, conservatism, naturalism and rationalism. It provides context for the application of science and art. Health is a state of optimal physical, emotional and social well-being.

Our Identity - Palmer College of Chiropractic
