Ray Ashby. Dr. Roger Blomquist. American Civilization 1700. Baseballs Great Experiment, Jules Tygiel. 11/1/13. The book Baseballs Great Experiment shows how people under the right circumstances can change history in the making. Tygiel starts out the story by telling how baseball started out segregated which allowed the reader to see through the eyes of Jackie Robinson and experience his life and how he and Rickey Branch changed the game of baseball.

Baseballs Great Experiment - Term Paper

Baseball's Great Experiment further raises questions about race and sports in our current day. The integration of baseball in the immediate post-World War II years profoundly impacted American racial attitudes and culture. Baseball, the national pastime and most popular sport at the time, had remained segregated even as football and basketball had begun integrating.
