Alchemist - Peter James

Alchemist was written during the tail end of a surge in conspiracy thrillers. The mid-90s saw many authors writing stories involving sinister organisations and cabals, each with their own diabolical schemes and malevolent plans for domination. James has tweaked it, adding an unusual tilt which means this novel doesn't sit squarely in any one genre.

Alchemist by Peter James

As per usual, Peter James has excelled in his ability to create a world full of twisting and turning storylines and detailed characters. Whilst the alchemists deviated somewhat from the toy grave novels, it is still an excellent choice and one that has a space reserved for it on my favourite shelf.
