For over half a century, Turrell has worked directly with light and space to create land art and other artworks that engage viewers with the 'limits and wonder of human perception'. Turrell, an avid pilot who has logged over twelve thousand hours flying, considers the sky his studio, material and canvas.

Sky Garden Liss Ard County Cork. The Sky Garden at Liss Ard Country House Estate is one of only two in the world designed by the American sculptor James Turrell and seriously difficult to put into words. I have never experienced anything quite like it and it is certainly not what you would expect to find in a quiet corner of West Cork.

Commissioned by a previous owner of Liss Ard it is part of a complex of such installations (yet to be completed) it cost in excess of €500,000 so it might ...

James Turrell is an American artist known for his work within the Light and Space movement. Much of Turrell's career has been devoted to a still-unfinished work, Roden Crater, a natural cinder cone crater located outside Flagstaff, Arizona, that he is turning into a massive naked-eye observatory; and for his series of skyspaces, enclosed spaces that frame the sky. Turrell was a MacArthur Fellow in 1984.
