My kitchen sink is generally shiny clean--and apparently that is huge with the author. Cilley does give great tips on getting organized in little periods of time each day--something I try to do. So now I feel better about my low level of disorganization, although my house looks no better than it did before I read the book. On to another book....

Sink Reflections is the summary of Ms. Cilley's on-line teachings. It, by itself, provides a wonderful foundation for people to work themselves out of disorganization. It is also a great introduction to her on-line community, which can help you decide whether to join the on-line network. But I have a confession about this book.
