Dungeon Desolation The Divine Dungeon

The Divine Dungeon series established and has maintained the standard for a dungeon core story in my opinion. It separates itself so fully from the others that I find myself mentally groaning when other series try adding in a dungeon resource-building trope. So I am a little sad to say that reading this book was a fairly hollow experience.

Dungeon Desolation (The Divine Dungeon, #4) by Dakota Krout

I read a lot of Dungeon Core Stories and the Divine Dungeon Series is one of the best. The World and Characters are interesting and who want to know what will happening to them. The story is not repetitive which can be an issue with some Dungeon Core stories but keeps new and interesting elements occurring.

The Divine Dungeon Series by Dakota Krout - Goodreads

Divine Dungeon book 4 keeps with what it has established and continues to build upon it. It's like it has a strong foundation, gives off a solid aura, and knows how to cultivate its surroundings and grow stronger for it... I was more than a little surprised at the very end and have no idea what to expect from the eventual sequel.
