Sadly, no surprise as to what the number one weapon of homicide is in the United States. Again, not to spark a gun control debate, guns do kill people far easier than knives and fists, but those guns still need someone to pull the trigger, and there are a myriad of socio-economic and political reasons that inform one's use of a firearm. The facts are still the facts however; of the 12,765 murders in the U.S. in 2012, two-thirds were committed with firearms; handguns alone committed 6,371 ...
