The Outsider is the first book in the series and introduces us to the main characters and the town of Roswell with its alien conspiracies. I was happy to note that the television show followed the book quite closely. Max Evans saves the life of Liz, a fellow student when she is shot in the stomach.

With the new Rosswell tv show that started, I wanted to watch the original series, which brought me to the book that started it all, so here I am. The book was good, but it was interesting to see how the series diverged from around halfway through the novel. Still, a good quick read. flag 1 like · Like · see review.
