Deborah Swift, who has also written as Davina Blake, is an English writer of historical fiction, based in north west Lancashire. Her first published novel was The Lady's Slipper, which alludes to the lady's slipper orchid found in the Silverdale area near her home. Levens Hall features as one of the locations of the book, which is set in 1660 and involves the persecution of local Quakers. The Gilded Lily follows some of the same characters but moves the location to London and considers aspects o
