Prayers for Rain - Knowing Jesus

Since the world is judged for rain at this time, according to the Talmud, it is proper to pray for rain at this time of the year. The prayer gives expression to the natural anxiety felt in Israel for the seasonal rain, the absence of which means famine, thirst, and disease. The prayer is delayed until Shemini Atzeret because it should not be invoked when fine weather is needed to enable us to dwell in the sukkah (Talmud, Sukkah28b).

Praying for Rain is an action-packed, emotional, gritty apocalyptic romance that will grip you right from the start! End-of-the-world reads are my favorite and Easton doesn't disappoint! She ruins the world in the most unique and twisted way, but makes it all better by giving us Wes and Rain's sweet love story!
